

Transition Workshop:

Plan for the Future of Your Youth with Special Needs- GUARDIANSHIP

This hands-on Transition Workshop is for parents and caregivers of youth who will need a legal guardian when they turn 18.

Important issues that will be addressed:

Part 1:

- Why an individual may need a legal guardian (decision making for school, community, health care, etc.)
- Responsibilities of the guardian and how the guardianship law protects an individual's rights.
- Overview of the guardianship process.

Part 2:

- Hands-on walk through of the paperwork and process required to file for guardianship.

Please note: The court process and legal forms will be explained but participants will not be able to seek answers for their individual situations! We are not able to provide legal advice at this workshop.

This workshop will be presented by Attorneys Kristin Occhetti, Quarles & Brady; and Rock Pledl, Pledl & Cohn
